

Supporting the Legion – Remembrance Day

The Band, and piper Jordan McConnell, provided the music for the annual Remembrance Day banquet at the Legion on Saturday November 7, 2009.

JOHN CURRY PHOTO

Bagpiper Jordan McConnell pipes the head table into the Stittsville Legion Hall at the beginning of the annual Remembrance banquet last Saturday evening.

The Remembrance banquet at the Legion Hall began with the piping in of the head table by piper Jordan McConnell. After the singing of “O Canada” with the Stittsville Concert Band ensemble providing the music, Rev. Grant Dillenbeck of the Stittsville United Church, serving the role of Legion chaplain, led those at the banquet in grace.

A toast to the Queen and a toast to fallen comrades rounded out the preliminary ceremonies at the banquet.

Among those in attendance at the banquet were city of Ottawa Stittsville/Kanata West ward councillor Shad Qadri, Stittsville Legion president Dave Cashman and former Legion president Ron Currie who served as MC for the evening.